IYUNADE: JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY AND CULTURE*About the Journal

Iyunade: Journal of Philosophy and Culture is a bi-annual peer-reviewed journal, which is devoted and dedicated to issues in philosophy – the real wisdom of all disciplines. Iyunade, symbolically, means treasure as the expensive beads from Yoruba conceptualisation. And from the classical languages – Greek and Latin especially, it denotes treasure vault or simply as treasure. This treasure vault includes cultural analysis and digital humanisation of which philosophy, the queen of all sciences, cannot be excluded from.

On the basis of its various conceptualisations, it must be known that real treasure is wisdom, of which philosophy stands for. Hence, what makes treasurable vault a significant part and process towards the attainment of wisdom is its adequate attention to all aspects of human comprehension with the sole aim of understanding man and the phenomena world, along with the noumena realities. Therefore, Iyunade: Journal of Philosophy and Culture is interested in the publication of imaginative and novel manuscripts, which are oriented towards the interpretation of real challenges of humanity in which man continues to seek for truth, reality, ethos and knowledge to the attainment of the Logos – wisdom.

The journal started with its maiden edition in December 2024, and is housed in the Department of Philosophy, with two issues every year (June and December). Manuscripts are welcome in all areas of philosophy and other allied disciplines with specific relations and nuances in philosophical discipline. Special editions devoted to specific issues will also be considered. Deadlines for submission of manuscripts are March 31 for June edition and September 30 for December edition respectively.
